

HALDIMAND COUNTY MUSEUM & ARCHIVES PRESENTS

A unique and interesting educational program for your students. complete with costumed interpreters your class will hear

“A Soldiers Story”

Through interpretation, artifacts, archives and hands on projects your students will learn about Haldimand and surrounding communities' involvement in the formation of the 37th Haldimand Rifles and the 114th Haldimand Battalion (Brock's Rangers). Through first person interpretation they will learn about life in the trenches during WW1 from a soldier and a nursing sister. Students will also have an opportunity to learn more about individual soldiers from the 114th Haldimand Battalion through this presentation and our archives.

This Program is:

- . linked to the Ontario Curriculum
- . two hours in length (unless otherwise noted) including travel time
- . $4.00 per student (teachers and parents free)
- . class size from 10-38
- . offered morning and afternoons
- . offered as outreach to your school or at the museum
- . complete with pre/post-visit information and activity package

To book please contact the Haldimand County Museum & Archives, at 8 Echo St, Cayuga ON
905-772-5880 or email: krichardson@haldimandcounty.on.ca

