

The Act of Remembrance

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.
We will remember them.*

Important Resources to share with your family on Remembrance Day:

The importance of Remembrance Day

Through The Royal Canadian Legion, Remembrance Day initiative revolve around ceremonies and events to honour and remember Canada's fallen Veterans and help ensure Canadians never forget. Remembrance day is not just a day, it is also a year-long commitment. Some other ways to show your appreciation not on Remembrance day is:

- Becoming a Legion member to support Veterans year-round
- Making a donation to the Legion's Poppy Trust Fund at any Legion Branch
- Saying "Thank you" to a Veteran
- Wearing a Poppy
- Honouring a fallen Veteran on the Legion's Wall of Honour and Remembrance
- Planting Poppy seeds or growing a garden of Remembrance
- Visiting a cenotaph
- Inviting a Legion Branch to make a presentation at a school or community group
- Wearing or displaying commemorative items from the Poppy Store

- Visiting the Canadian War Museum or local history museums
- Volunteering to help Veterans, and more!

Remembrance Day Ceremonies

Every year, at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, we gather to stand in honour of those who have fallen. Together, we observe a moment of silence to mark the sacrifice of the many who have fallen and to acknowledge the courage of those who still serve.

This year, the National Remembrance Day Ceremony in Ottawa will be live on Facebook. The Program begins at 10:45am.

The Poppy

From the last Friday in October to Remembrance Day, millions of Canadians wear a Poppy as a visual pledge to never forget those who sacrificed for our freedoms today.

The Poppy Campaign:

- The Poppy Campaign is a local initiative conducted by Legion Branches in cities, towns and communities across Canada.
- Donations towards The Poppy Campaign directly support Veterans and their families within their community
